Number of Important Bills Introduced.

More Superior Court Judges Wanted—Bill To Require Mileage to Be Accepted on Trains—Increased Pensions For Veterans—Republican Leader Introduces Resolution Scoring Marion Butler.

Raleigh, Jan. 10.—A number of bills of importance were introduced at today's session of the legislature, among the number being: To enable cities to adopt commission form of government, increase number of Superior court judges, require railroads to accept mileage on trains or to grant the two cent per mile fare, increase pensions of soldiers and widows, etc.

In the House a joint resolution was sent up by Representative Ewart, of Henderson, Republican, thanking Governor Pothier, of Rhode Island, for his refusal to accept the gift of North Carolina fraudulent bonds from the New York Bond Syndicate and scoring ex-United States Senator Butler and any others who would attempt to harass the state for the collection of these bonds as "perfidious and pernicious". The reading of this feature of the resolution elicited great applause, more especially on account of the resolution coming from a Republican member, the leader of the party in the House.

The House.

The House convened at 11 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Eubank offering the prayer.

The report of the corporation commission that an investigation had shown that freight rates from Carolina ports inland are as low in North Carolina as in irginia and South Carolina, was received.

Hobgood, of Guilford: Regulating the sale of lands under mortgage and deeds of trust, where the lands lie in two counties. Judiciary.

The committee on counties, cities and towns reported favorably on the bill incorporating the city of Greensboro and repealing its present charter and all laws in conflict. Senator Hood explained the bill, which provides for a commission form of government. It passed second reading without a dissenting voice.

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders Held Yesterday Afternoon.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Commercial National Bank was held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock in the directors' room, practically every stockholder being represented. Cashier F. C. Boyles submitted his report, which showed the institution to be in a fine financial condition. The past year showed a substantial increase in business over the preceding year. STEALS GIRL FROM FIANCE

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 10.—While her fiance, William Rummains, toiled away in his real estate office here yesterday morning, Miss Virginia Crutcher entered an automobile with Eugene Bright, another sweetheart and eloped to Danville, where they were married at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Miss Crutcher came downtown early with a bundle of wedding invitations, all addressed and stamped ready for mailing. She and Mr. Rummains had worked on them last night and had everything ready for the wedding to take place January 17. The mother and sisters of Bright had paid their last visit to Miss Crutcher, and all thought she was determined and would marry Rummains.

The Danville young man, however, had not given up, and after Rummains had left the girl's home he called her on the long-distance telephone and told her he would be waiting at the postoffice for her. She picked up the package of wedding invitations and went out. Failing to return home her family set about an inquiry. Yesterday afternoon they were told that she and Mr. Bright had been married in Danville.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASONS

Grand Lodge Convened Last Night.

Report of Grand Secretary Drewery Showed That During Past Year One Thousand Members Were Received, Ten Lodges Being Instituted—Expected That Action For Erection of Home Will Be Taken.

Raleigh, Jan. 10.—The most interesting feature of the annual convocation of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons which convenes here tonight for three days session, is expected to be the definite move that will be made toward the erection of the home for aged and indigent Masons. The directors of this proposed institution, as appointed two years ago have already accepted a 25 acre site and $5,000 donation toward the building fund from the Masons of the City of Greensboro and it is expected that action will be taken at this session of the grand lodge that will bring about the erection of at least a $25.000 administration building in connection with this plant during the next two years.

The principal feature of the opening session tonight in the Masonic Temple was the address of the Grand Master, Hon. Richard N. Hackett, of Wilkesboro. At the conclusion of the address the reports of the Grand Secretary, Mr. John C. Drewry, of Raleigh, and the Grand Treasurer, Mr. Leo D. Heartt, of Raleigh, were received, after which the address of Hon. Francis D. Winston, of Windsor, Grand Orator, was delivered.

On Wednesday night at eight o'clock the regular election of officers will take place.

The report of Grand Secretary Drewry shows that during the past year the order has made good progress in North Carolina. Ten new lodges have been chartered, making the total number in the State now 385.

The total membership of the North Carolina lodges is 21,000, a gain over last year of about 1,000 members, there having been 20,014 Masons in the State last year.

The total receipts during the year amounted to $17,711.93, a gain over the previous year of $1,250.

The report of the temple committee showed the temple at Raleigh to be in a satisfactory condition. During the past year the receipts from rents amounted to $12,159.22, the total profit from the building being $7,532.26. The cost of operating, including all expenses, was $4,626.96. During the year the debt was reduced $12,500.

There was a joint session of the Senate and the House of Representatives at noon today during which there was the formal canvassing of the vote for state officers in the November elections following which these officers declared elected will take the oath of office and enter upon their duties. They are State Auditor, and two corporation commissioners. The vote for state auditor was Col. William P. Wood, democrat, 140,531; and J. Q. A. Wood, his republican opponent, 94,017, democratic majority, 46.514.

Col. W. P. Wood, the new state auditor who is just assuming his official duties, says he will make no changes in the clerical force of the office, retaining the force as it was for a long while prior to the death of the lamented State Auditor B. F. Dixon and as retained after his death by B. F. Dixon, Jr., whom Col. Wood now succeeds. The retiring state auditor, B. F. Dixon, Jr., becomes secretary to the finance committee No. 1, of the Senate, of which Major J. W. Graham is the chairman.

DEATH OF MRS. EMMA KISTLER

Passes Away At Home in Claremore, Okla.—Formerly of Guilford County.

News was received here yesterday of the death of Mrs. Emma Kistler at Claremore, Okla. She was 65 years of age and had been a sufferer from tuberculosis, which probably occasioned her death. She was 65 years of age.

Mrs. Kistler is the sister of Mrs. M G. Hutton. She was born and reared in Guilford county six miles north of Greensboro, and went west about twenty years ago. She is survived by the husband and five sons.

It may not be so bad if your views are one-sided—providing you always look upon the bright side.

THE ATHLETES OF HIGH SCHOOL MEET

Getting in Shape to Win Victories On Diamond This Spring—Henry Foust Will Captain Nine—John Stone, Manager—Arranging For a Track Meet.

That the Athletic Association of Greensboro High School is going to make a strong effort to capture further athletic honors was decidedly evident in the rousing meeting held yesterday afternoon. The president called the meeting and stated that its purpose was to elect officers for the coming spring to lead the teams of the association both on the diamond and and on the track. Great enthusiasm prevailed as there is always much friendly rivalry for the positions. John Stone whose ability to perform managerial duties was clearly demonstrated during the past football season, and Ralph Lewis were chosen respectively manager and assistant. These two will immediately begin the work of arranging a schedule of interesting games. The team will probably be able to extend its list of opponents this year; as a trip to Eastern cities, which has heretofore been impossible, is under consideration by the management since these towns are putting out good teams, which are strong competitors for the honors that Greensboro desires to win Henry Foust, crack first baseman of last year's nine will captain the team but his active duties will not begin until the warmth of spring starts the season.

Greensboro High School, as usual in the lead, has been a prominent worker for track events in this state, practically starting the movement. Ray Bond, newly elected manager, and Willard Eutsler, assistant, will start the ball a' rolling toward a state inter-high school meet. Roger McDuffie is the captain of the team.

Greensboro was very successful in her meet here last spring, and to prepare for more triumphs a series of meets will be arranged between the four classes of the high school. Strenuous efforts will be made to secure a coach to train the members.

The Athletic Association shows commendable foresight in the early election of its leaders for they realize that greater honors can be won by the preparation of hard training.

GIRL KILLS MOTHER IN FIGHT

Trouble Started By Parent's Objection To Man Caller.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 10.—Near Rolling Fork, in Casey county, Miss Lula Allen and her mother, aged 70 years, engaged in a fight Sunday, as the result of which Mrs. Allen is dead and the girl is to be examined for lunacy.

It seems that Mrs. Allen objected to the visits of a young man caller whom Miss Allen had welcomed, and that they engaged in a hot dispute, leading to blows. The girl threw her mother against a stone mantel and it is said attempted to smother her with a pillow. Neighbors rescued Mrs. Allen, but she died from her injuries Sunday night. A brother of Miss Allen, who resided with them, but was absent from home at the time, says that his sister's mind is unbalanced and asks that she be taken before a board of inquiry.

HOOK & ROGERS GET CONTRACT.

For New Dormitory At Greensboro Female College.

Messrs. Hook & Rogers, of Charlotte, were the fortunate firm to secure the contract for plans for the new dormitory to be erected for the Greensboro Female College. There were in the city yesterday not less than fourteen firms with plans for the inspection of the committee.

Work on the new building will not be delayed longer than will be necessary to submit bids for the work and to get the right men to go ahead with the construction. It is hoped to have the dormitory completed by the beginning of the fall term. The building will cost about $25,000 and will accommodate 72 additional pupils.

SENATOR GRAHAM AND COL. ANDREWS CONFER

Discuss Bill Requiring Additional Passenger Service Between Greensboro and Raleigh.

Raleigh, Jan. 10.—Senator Graham, of Orange, has had a conference with First Vice President A. B. Andrews, of the Southern Railway, regarding the former's bill introduced in the Senate last Friday requiring the Southern to put on an additional passenger train daily each way between Greensboro and Raleigh. Col. Andrews declares that the business does not justify an additional train and if it is put on it will be operated at a loss to the company. Senator Graham insists that additional passenger service on this line is demanded by the heavy travel. It is expected that the railroad authorities will make a strong fight against the Graham bill. Senator Graham says he has received a letter from Hon. S. M. Gattis, of Hillsboro, former counsel for the Southern Railway but now solicitor of the ninth judicial district, heartily endorsing the bill and saying that if the Southern won't put on the additional train voluntarily it should be required to do so.

Among the welcome visitors to Raleigh this week is Maj. Charles M. Stedman, of Greensboro, Democratic Congressman-elect from the Fifth district. Since his arrival he has been surrounded by scores of admirers and legislators and others here are giving him a most cordial reception.

The various committees of the general assembly are perfecting their organization and preparing to get down to real work. The Senate judiciary committee No. 1 is the first to report on any bills, making favorable reports on the bill relatin gto fox hunting in Wayne county and also on remedying a defect in calling a bond election in New Bern. It will be several days before any bills of general importance will be acted on by the different committees.

NEW AD SWINDLE

Dupes Pay for Signs to Be Hung in New York Terminal.

New York, Jan. 10.—Advertising swindlers are using the Pennsylvania station in New York as a means for swindles in many parts of the country. Vigorous means are to be taken by the railroad to put an end to them. One swindle which has been perpetrated most generally is that of a large advertising poster, which it is claimed will be hung in the Pennsylvania station in New York, and in various places and waiting rooms at other stations along the lines of the company. This poster contains a large picture of the Pennslvania station, surrounded by advertisements.

The solicitors for this scheme state that they do not want any money, only a signed contract, and that the auditor of the Pennsylvania Railroad will make the collection. When the contract is signed, and the town is worked, the solicitors leave, and later on the printing concern draws a draft on the advertiser for the amount of the contract. One of the contracts is marked "Accepted," C. E. Keen, 308 Monadnock Building, Chicago, Ill.," and the posters are printed by a Chicago firm. Pennsylvania Railroad officials said that it was a well-established policy of the company not to have any advertising matter posted on its property.

INTERESTING GAME

Public Service Team Up Against Boys of Hunter Mfg. Co.—Latter Team Wins.

A close and very interesting game was played yesterday evening at the Gem bowling alley between the Hunter Manufacturing and Commission team and the Public Service team. The rollers of the Hunter Company won the game, and the interesting part was that when the scores were marked up the P. S. crew always came just "so near and yet so far."

BIG LIBEL SUIT IN U. S. COURT

Large Quantity of Liquor Involved.

The United States Government Vs. N. Glenn Williams and D. C. Foster For Possession of Six Hundred and Thirty Five Barrels of Liquor—Number of Witnesses Testified Yesterday—Case Will Take Up Entire Week.

In United States Court the libel case of United States vs. N. Glenn Williams and D. C. Foster, which was taken up on Monday morning, is dragging along and the case will consume the entire week. And at the present rate of progress it is doubtful if it will be concluded before next week. The testimony yesterday was in the nature of reports from government officers showing the records of gauging and of other government witnesses tending to show that the whiskey in question was slipped from the distillery and hidden in the woods.

When the government attempted to show that the whiskey was taken from the hiding place and carried and poured back into the rectifier at the distillery the defense objected. At this point court adjourned until this morning when counsel for the defense and government will argue as to the admission of the evidence.

This case has been on the docket for several terms being continued for one cause or another. Six hundred and thirty-five barrels of whiskey is involved, over $30,000 worth. The whiskey has been seized and released several times, now being in the hands of the defendants. It should be stated, however, that the true title of the case in common terms would be U. S. vs. 635 barrels of whiskey, Williams and Foster merely contending that the whiskey belongs to themselves. The government contends that the whiskey has been defaulted by reason of illegal operations of the counter claimants. The libel proceedings are along the same lines as condemnation proceedings in the State courts.

The evidence so far has been of little interest to the general public, consisting mainly of reports, etc. And too, the case is one that is not readily understood by those not versed in law or in the rules and regulations governing government distilleries. However, the interest will doubtless grow this mornng when counsel for the defense and government argue as to the admission of evidence.

The case is being fought with vigor, District Attorney Holton and Ex-Judge Bynum, opposing counsel, having able assistants.

HUNT SAYS HE'S GUILTY.

The Negro Who Assaulted and Robbed Woman on Highway Arraigned—Pleads Guilty.

Virgil Hunt, the negro who assaulted a white woman near White Oak last Wednesday afternoon and snatched her purse, was yesterday arraigned in court before Justice Collins, to answer the charge. He pleaded guilty and was bound over to the February term of Superior court in a bond of $1000.

There were three witnesses, one of which was Mrs. Johnson ,the victim of the assault. Jim Stephens was present, he being the man whom Hunt endeavored to use as a scape-goat. Monday Hunt said that Stephens was the man who made the assault, while he remained in the woods and looked on. But yesterday, seeing that his ruse was a failure he became suddenly seized with a bit of the Christmas spirit and declared that his friend Stephens was innocent of any implication in the crime. Stephens was then allowed his liberty, but no doubt pondering the lesson learned, that one is generally known by the company he keeps.

Hunt could not procure a bondsman for the thousand, and was taken back to prison.

Cows Stolen.

A message was received b ythe police last night requesting them to keep a lookout for three cows and a young heifer that were stolen from the herd of Mr. Steve Ware, near Reidsville, Monday night. The cows are of a yellowish color, one having one horn, another having both horns sawed off and the third having short stubby horns. This is not the first time some one has invaded Mr. Ware's pasture and made off with his milchers.

HUMAN DISSECTION.

Surgery and the Anatomists In the Olden Days.

For a long time Alexandria was the only medical center of the world, and the physician Galen, born about 130 A. D., had to journey from Rome to the African city even to see a skeleton. He sent his students to the German battlefields to dissect the bodies of the national enemies, while he himself used apes as most resembling human beings. Human dissection was revived in Bologna in the fourteenth century, where Madonna Manzolina later was professor of anatomy, undoubtedly one of the first women doctors, if not the very first. Leonardo da Vinci, painter of "The Last Supper," was a great anatomist, but dissection had fallen into disuse when Vesalius finally revived it about the middle of the sixteenth century.

Even in comparatively modern times anatomists have been the object of attacks by the populace. In 1765 Dr. John Shippen of Philadelphia was mobbed as a grave robber. Doctors' riots in New York occurred twenty-three years later and were due to the belief that the medical students robbed graves continually. It was the lack of opportunity to obtain subjects regularly that led to the practice of grave robbing and originated what Dr. Keene calls "a set of the lowest possible villains—the resurrectionists." —New York World.

THE HESSIANS.

They Were Good Soldiers, and Some Became Good Americans.

There is a popular belief among some people that the Hessian mercenaries brought here by the British government to fight the Americans remained here after the war was over and that their descendants constitute a considerable element of the Pennsylvania Germans of today. Comparatively few remained here after the war, because the British government was under contract to return such as escaped the casualties of the war after it was over. The few that remained made good citizens, as they made the very best soldiers against the Americans, and wherever it was practical to do so they were put in the most responsible places by the British commanders.

The intense hatred at one time against the so called Hessian soldiers, some of which still lingers with the present generation, is very unjust, because they did not volunteer to fight against the Americans, but they were forced into the British service by the impecunious German princes who sold them to the British like so many slaves. The Hessian soldiers would sometimes take a notion to desert, and they invariably found refuge among some of the German colonists. A considerable number of them were left behind from time to time on marches, on account of sickness or wounds. These always found a ready welcome among German settlers; few of them ever found the way back to their native land.—"Pennsylvania Germans," by William Beidelman.

LIBERTY BELL.

Its Connection With the Declaration of Independence.

The famous Liberty bell was cast in London in 1752, brought to America and subsequently recast in Philadelphia. It bears the inscription, "Proclaim Liberty Throughout the World and to All the Inhabitants Thereof." It was cracked while being tolled after the death of Chief Justice John Marshall in 1835. It is kept on exhibition in Independence hall, Philadelphia. It has had a fictitious importance owing to the popular belief that its ringing proclaimed the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. Concerning this belief, however, Friedenwald in his "Declaration of Independence" (1904) says:

"There is no shadow of authority even for associating the ringing of the bell with the announcement of the agreement upon independence. The mythical legend of the blue eyed boy waiting outside the door to give the signal to the man in the bell tower is the product of the fertile imagination of one of Philadelphia's early romancers, George Lippard, who first gave currency to it in his appropriately called 'Legends of the Revolution.' This book was published in 1847."—New York American.

His Experience.

"Jasper," said Mrs. Grigson, who was looking over the morning paper, "here's a story of a woman who was robbed on a street car in broad daylight, and yet the thief got away unsuspected."

Mr. Grigson said that he had seen the item, but that it was either a typographical error or else the story was pure invention.

"Why do you say that?" asked his wife.

"Look at the item again. It says her purse contained $100 in currency, does it not?"

"Yes."

"It says there was also a receipted bill for a five dollar hat, does it not?"

"Yes."

"Well, no woman with $100 in cash in her possession would buy a five dollar hat."—Youth's Companion.

His Critic.

"The greatest compliment that I ever received," says Opie Read, "was a criticism. Several years ago I went to Arkansas and visited the scene where one of my stories is laid. The landlord of the little hotel said to me:

"'Here comes a little old fellow to whom I loaned a copy of your book. He can't read, but his wife reads to him. Let's see what he says about the book.

"'"Hello, Jason, did your wife read that book to you?"

"'"Mawnin', sah. Yes, she done read it to me."

"'"Well, what do you think of it?"

"'"Huh? That ain't no book at all. I done lived hear fo' fo'ty yeahs an' I done heard folks talk that a-way all th' time."'"—Cincinnati Inquirer.

Love and the Laundry.

"The only thing I find to say against you is that your washing bill is far too extravagant. Last week you had six blouses in the wash. Why, Jane, my own daughter never sends more than two."

"Ah, that may be, mum," replied Jane, "but I 'ave to! Your daughter's sweetheart is a bank clerk, while my young man is a chimney sweep. It makes a difference, mum."—London Tit-Bits.

Cleaned Them Out.

First Girl—Was your bazaar a great success? Second Girl—I should think so. All the gentlemen had to walk home. They hadn't even a penny in their pockets to pay their tram fares. —London Tit-Bits.

How It Is.

"How is it, if Love is blind, that we hear of love at first sight?"

DAY 762. PHONES NIGHT 1442

The Fishman's Story

By HARRY VAN AMBERG

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

I'm in fish myself, and once in awhile I find it necessary to the business to go where the fish I sell are caught.

One autumn I went to a village on the coast where most everybody was either a fisherman or belonged to a fisherman's family. I felt at home among them, for that was the way I started—fishing. Although it was late in the autumn, I used to go out with the men whenever the weather admitted their going themselves.

There was a pair of sweethearts, Jim Parker and Susie Dale. I used to like to watch them when they were together. They seemed to forget that there was any one else in the town. But that's the case with most lovers. One day I was down at the pier when Jim was bringing his boat to shore—he was a fisherman like the rest—with a load of fish. He was at the tiller when he caught sight of Susie standing on the pier, and it was refreshing to see the smile that lit up his manly face.

I turned for a glance at Susie, and she, too, wore a very happy expression. Then for the first time I noticed a young man standing near me looking at Jim. I never saw such a malignant expression on a man's face in my life.

Wondering what was the matter between them, I made inquiries and learned that the fellow was Jack Huggins, who had kept company with Susie before she became engaged to Jim. Indeed, Susie cast off from Huggins before she hooked on to Parker. Everybody said it was a good move for Susie, since Jack Huggins was a mighty poor stick. Indeed, it was said he'd had trouble with the law.

One day I was on the beach looking at the waves roll in and break on the beach. It was ugly outside—just the sort of day that a person would rather look at the waves from the shore than be rolling on them. Susie came down and looked out on the waters anxiously.

She didn't need to tell me that her lover was out there and she was worried about him. Presently a boat came rolling around a point about two miles out, and it was evident that something was the matter. There was nothing up but the jib, and the boat was low in the water. Every time she went into the trough of the sea it seemed as if she would never come up again.

I heard Susie give a cry of alarm, and, going to her, though I had no acquaintance with her, I asked her about the boat. She told me hurriedly through tears that it was Parker's boat, was an old hulk not calculated to stand such weather, and it was plain from the way it dragged that it was sinking.

Casting a glance at the pier, I saw a sloop rigged fishing smack anchored within the breakwater, and Jim Huggins was on her, doing some sort of fixing.

"I'll take that boat," I said to Susie, "and go out and help him."

"Not that one," she said. "You can't take that. Isn't there another?"

"Not one in sight."

I ran to the pier and got aboard the boat. Susie followed me. "Parker's out there in distress," I said. "We must go out and help him in."

I never saw a man do a thing more unwillingly in my life. Susie said she would go too. I tried to dissuade her on the ground that we might not get back ourselves. But she said that if Jim went down she wanted to go down too.

This was more than Jim's rival could stand. And yet what he felt at the start was nothing to what he felt as we were beating up against the wind, making for Parker's swamping boat. It seemed as if the tempest stirred up all the frightful deviltry there was in him. I saw it in his eye and was more afraid of his wrecking our purpose than of the storm.

But, anxious as I was about what he might do, I underrated what was in his mind. We were within a cable's length of the man we had come to succor, and, leaving the tiller with Huggins, I went forward to look out for meeting Parker's boat, which was mighty near sinking.

What did the villain do but try to upset us all. Giving the tiller a jerk to leeward, he turned the sheet broadside against the wind. I had an oar in my hand at the time with which to fend off, and, seeing the fiend's purpose, I made a few quick steps aft and hit him a crack over the head. The blow knocked him senseless, and the boat righted. But she was nearly half full of water. Before Huggins got his bearings again we had luffed up to the leeward of Parker's craft and he sprang aboard of us. The stunned man came to himself just in time to see Susie spring into her lover's arms.

But at the moment another matter diverted our attention. A big wave came, and our boat, being loaded with water, dragged in it fearfully. I surely thought we were going down. But she righted, and when we looked for Jim Parker's boat it was not to be seen.

Putting our boat before the wind, we succeeded in riding the waves and got her in behind the breakwater. Then, looking at Huggins, I said:

"You git before I brain you!"

And he did. That was the last that was ever seen of him in those parts.

Another aviator was killed Monday in Servia. Will 1911 have as many aviation fatalities as 1910?

Monday in the House Speaker Cannon was sustained on the same point on which he was overruled last Spring. The Democrats last Spring voted with the insurgents. Monday they sided with the old line Republicans. What's up? Has victory spoiled 'em thus early?

A story comes from Washington that Editor Z. W. Whitehead, of a lumber journal at Wilmington, was given a snub in Washington by a Senator whom he took the liberty of advising to vote to exculpate Senator Lorimer on the ground that Lorimer had voted to retain the tariff on lumber. We hope that the report is untrue and that Mr. Whitehead will be able to show conclusively that it is. If it is true, it is a blot upon the editorial profession.

Mr. R. L. Gray, it was announced some time ago, has been employed as an editorial writer on the Baltimore News, one of the Munsey papers. He remained with the Richmond Virginian till the first of the year and then went to Baltimore to take up his new work. The News and Observer says his salary will be greater than that paid to any editor in North Carolina. Gray will earn all he gets. He is a genius. He is very prolific, and the goods that he delivers are up to the mark. It is very unusual for as voluminous an editorial writer as he is to maintain the high standard of literary excellence that he maintains. He will add lustre to Mr. Munsey's Baltimore News.

On the fourteenth of next month there will be held in Raleigh a convention to procure the construction of a highway through the heart of North Carolina to be known as the Central Highway. Mr. Clem G. Wright, of this city, has been agitating for such a highway for years and the signs portend that it will not be long before this great dream of his will be realized. What seems to be an entirely practicable plan of construction, without any tax, election or cumbersome machinery, has been worked out and some active and resourceful men are behind the guns. It is estimated that three-fourths of the road is already constructed. It is the plan to construct the remainder of road the coming spring. Its construction would stimulate the building of good roads throughout the State and such a road would be of itself worth a great deal to the State in many ways. The undertaking should command hearty co-operation in every county through which the Central Highway will pass. Greensboro, however, should have been chosen as the place of meeting for the formal launching of the project, its location being more nearly central than that of Raleigh.

Tainted money is often put to a very good use. The late Russell Sage, if we are correctly informed, was something of a money shark, but now that he is dead and gone without having been able to carry his moneybags with him, there has come about through the philanthropic tendencies of his widow what is known as the Russell Sage Foundation the income of which is to be used in making rough the path of usurious money lenders. All success to the Foundation! It will meet a real need. That it will serve a useful purpose does not atone for whatever of hard bargaining and miserliness old man Sage used in piling up his millions, but absolutely the best use for tainted money is to apply it to untainted purposes. Speaking of the Rockefeller Foundation for the advancement of civilization and elaborating the above mentioned point, the New Yorw World, eloquently says:

This is not the only Foundation whose bed-rock cannot be scrutinized agreeably. Empires, thrones, aristocracies, society itself, rest too often upon beginnings of which no one is proud. Fortunes gained in slaves, in strange practices on the Spanish Main, in smuggling, in carrying rum to aborigines, in extortion, in conquest, in downright piracy, long ago furnished energy, culture and devotion on the right side in many a fight for liberty and progress. Without money derived from sources now looked upon with disfavor some of the world's greatest heroes could not have rounded out their careers.

The offenses of Standard Oil are one thing. The benevolent employment of some of its hundreds of millions is another. Mr. Rockefeller's gift does not blot out in any degree the record made by his corporation or relieve him of the fullest responsibility for his part in its affairs. It stands by itself and is to be judged by its purposes and uses only. If they shall be kindly, humanizing, enlightening and just they will serve not so much to obscure as to darken and render forbidding the practices that made the accumulation possible.

What is called business varies greatly from age to age. In many respects it is a desperate game even now. Those who get money ruthlessly and those who keep it in miserly fashion are still in evidence. There should be praise of good deeds not only for the encouragement of the well-disposed but for the instruction of those who never felt a generous impulse or recognized an obligation to their fellows.

The Foundations that crumble are those whose superstructure sustains nothing but greed and injustice. The Foundations that last, no matter by whom laid, are those that bear aloft the true beacons of civilization and progress.

These are facts which neither sycophancy nor rancor can change.

THE DEED SECURED.

The Masonic and Eastern Star Home Site in Hands of Masons.

The deed for the site for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home has been turned over to the committee from the three Greensboro Lodges and is now being recorded. In his report to the grand lodge submitted yesterday the secretary stated that the site had been secured and everything was in readiness for the work to begin, several architects now having plans under consideration.

The committee from the local lodges is composed of Messrs. J. A. Kleemeier, C. E. Hudson, J. M. Millikan, C. M. Vanstory, J. J. Phoenix, A. S. Cate, H. C. Simpson, J. P. Sanders and F. C. Foyles. This committee will in the next few days call for a payment of 10 per cent. of the amount subscribed by the various Masons of the city. This can be paid to F. C. Boyles, treasurer of the institution, or to any member of the above committee.

Now that the deed has been secured and recorded the local Masons will put forth every effort to assist in every way possible the building committee and it is hoped that the work of erecting the buildings will be begun at an early date in order that before the next meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons the institution will be occupied.

DEATH LAST NIGHT.

Miss Othelia Wagstaff Passes Away At Home of Her Brother.

Miss Othelia Wagstaff died last evening at 10:20 o'clock at the home of her brother, Mr. C. M. Wagstaff, 1301 North Elm street, following an illness with tuberculosis. She was 43 years of age and had been in failing health for some time past.

Miss Wagstaff was born in Mecklenburg county, Virginia, in 1868, coming to Greensboro several years ago to reside with her brother. Since coming here she made many friends who will be grieved to learn of her death.

The funeral will be held from the late residence, 1301 North Elm street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Mr. Morton, pastor of the North Greensboro Baptist Mission, assisted by Rev. K. C. Horner, of Proximity. Interment in Green Hill cemetery.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all the other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucuous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

A WHITE HOUSE JEST.

General Harrison's Objections to Monuments to "Vest."

As a general thing, one of the first duties of the wife of an incoming president and one of the things she usually enjoys heartily is to attend to such rearrangements and refurnishings of the White House as may be necessary or advisable according to her personal taste, the size and customs of her family, and so on.

I remember one occasion, writes Colonel William H. Crook in the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post, when Mrs. Harrison had finally decided upon some slight architectural changes and had brought her architect's plans to the president and asked his opinion of them. General Harrison studied the drawings with care and noticed that several niches were left, each plainly marked. At last he said:

"Well, my dear, here is a place for Lincoln, and here is a place for Grant's bust. And you have left three places for Vest." Then he added, with well assumed indignation, "I am decidedly opposed to so many monuments to Vest—in the White House!"

Mrs. Harrison hastened to explain—what her husband, of course, knew all the time—that the word "Vest." was the architect's contraction for vestibule, of which there were three on the plans, whereupon the president said he was satisfied and handed the drawings back to her, with a twinkle in his keen blue eyes.

A FIERCE ANATHEMA.

Jean Paul Richter once observed that if a lady officer wanted to give the word "Halt!" she would do it in the following strain: "You soldiers, all of you, now mind what I say. I order you as soon as I have done speaking to stand still, every one of you, on the spot where you happen to be. Don't you hear me? Halt, I say, all of you!"

Upon this a strong minded woman made the following comment: "Now, M. Jean, it was an unlucky day on which you wrote that sentence. May you never hear anything but that little, concise word 'No' from every rosy pair of lips you meet. May you halt wifeless through life. May your buttons be snappish, your strings knotty and your stockings full of holes. May your bootjack be missing, your feet corny and your shaving water cold, your razor dull, your hair stand up, your collar lie down. May your beard be porcupiny, your whiskers thinly settled and your mustache curl the wrong way. May your coffee be muddy, your toast smoky and your tea water bewitched, and, with a never dying desire for affection, may you crawl through creation a meek, miserable, nasty, forlorn, fidgety, fussy, ridiculous, ruined, dejected old bachelor."

High Sounding Names.

Writing in his Paris paper on the growing custom on the part of parents to give their children "high sounding" names, Clement Vautel says: "When the boy is old enough to understand he rebels at being compelled to carry through life a name like Anacreon or Hipparchus. But he has company. I know a deputy whose parents named him Franklin. The name in itself is not so bad, but he has two brothers, Voltaire and Socrates respectively. Fancy this scene in the nursery: Franklin howling because Voltaire has broken his toy, while Socrates laughs at both. The mother as peacemaker shouts, 'Stop, Socrates, or you'll be punished!' In a narrow street in Marseilles one broiling hot day I saw a woman spanking a child, shouting in anger, 'You naughty Epaminondes; I'll teach you, Epaminondes!' I could never think of the Theban general after that without laughing."

GREENSBORO MADE MACHINE DELIGHTS AN ATLANTA MAN

Dixie Washer Designated As the King of Washing Machines.

The Dixie Laundry Machinery Company lately shipped one of its washers to a laundry in Atlanta. There was some delay in securing settlement and the manager was written a letter which he was urged to meet the terms on which the machine was sold to him. He replied, in a very satisfactory letter as to payments, and said, "Not having seen your washer in operation (and being from Missouri) I desired to see for myself and, I assure you, I am more than pleased. With twenty years of experience with washers, I must say you have the KING." Naturally the officers of the company were gratified at the receipt of such a letter, but they say that that is absolutely the only kind of letter they receive regarding the machine. They believe that there is going to be a constantly increasing demand for the Dixie washer.

FOURTEEN DROWNED

Crews of Coal Barges Meet Watery Graves Off Coast of Massachusetts.

Highland, Mass., Jan. 10.—Fourteen men, comprising the captains and crews of the coal barges Corbin, Pine Forest and Treverton, bound east in tow of the tug Lykens, were drowned today. The barges were driven ashore on the Peaked Hill bar early in the day and within a few hours had gone to pieces.

A fifty mile gale directly from the north was blowing and made the Peaked Hill, on the knuckle of the cape, the worst kind of a lee shore. Two life saving crews stood on the sands powerless to launch the boat or reach the barge with a life line.

At 8 o'clock two bodies had been thrown upon the beach, both with life preservers on, where were stenciled "Treverton."

The Treverton was the largest barge of the three and carried a crew of six men with Captain F. I. Brown, of Lincolnville, Me., in command. She was bound for Portland. The Corbin carried a crew of four men and was commanded by Captain C. M. Smith, of Phiadelhpia. She was bound for Portsmouth, N. H.

The Pine Forest, which was the smallest of the tow and carried four men, was commanded by Captain M. W. Hall of Provincetown, and was bound for Marblehead, Mass.

It was impossible to launch any life boat for the bars at this end of the cape are double and sometimes triangle, and the entire distance from shore to the outer bar was a tumbling mass of cross seas in which not even a life boat could be kept upright.

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 10.—Signals from the members of the Barnegat life saving crew at sea established the identity of the vessel that stranded last night off that station as the Harold B. Cousins, Captain A. C. Williams, of St. John, N. B., bound from Portland for Washington, with a cargo of laths. The schooner carried a crew of seven men.

The Cousins is deep in the mud. Crews of the Forked River, Loved Ladies Island and Barnaget life saving stations stood by the stranded craft all night. Attempts to pull her off when the sea calmed soon after high tide this morning proved futile. It is feared the Cousins will go to pieces before wrecking tugs reach her.

SUFFRAGETTE SHOCKS CHURCH

Stamford, Conn., Jan. 10.—Mrs. Sarah Armistead, a militant suffragette, created a sensation in the Universalist church by unfurling a banner marked "Votes for Women" and marching down the centre aisle to the pulpit, where stood Robert Wittaker, a Stamford man, who had just finished a lay sermon entitled "Wide-awake Stamford."

"Wide awake, indeed!" sniffed Mrs. Armistead. "If you are wide awake, why not give us self-supporting women a hotel where we can be sure of being let in if our business keeps us out after 10 p. m., where we may have a tub bath, or, perhaps, a shower bath, without stealing it? Wide awake indeed! You say the citizen who does not vote is undesirable. What about we women—are we undesirable?"

Mrs. Armistead is 60 years old and married. She has a daughter about 20 who is also a militant suffragette.

Arabic Numerals.

An illustration of what mankind owes to the labor saving Arabic numerals compared with preceding forms of notation is shown in adding 1848 to 1848, the sum of which is expressed in only four figures, or 3696. Meantime in Roman characters we would have to denote 1848 with the capital letters MDCCCXLVIII. Repeating these letters explains why Cicero complained of the sweating toil of all addition. On that account Homer's total of Agamemnon's fleet is not the correct sum of the different contingents to it which he gives of the Grecian states. Herodotus is worse yet when he gives the total figures of Xerxes' army after enumerating the quota of the various nationalities which composed it. Likewise what a life insurance company would now do without Arabic numerals may be imagined.—Dr. William Hanna Thomson in Designer.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE BANK.

Stockholders and Directors In Annual Session Yesterday—Fine Business Record.

The annual meetings of the stockholders and directors of the American Exchange Bank was held yesterday and in spite of the fact that the year 1910 was not a good business year, the bank's record was a good one and maintained fully the record of substantial progress which has marked the history of this bank from the time of its organization.

The net earnings for the past year were $32,008.28, out of which dividends of 8 per cent. were paid, leaving a substantial balance to be carried to the company's surplus accumulations. This banks has paid out in dividends since its organization, three years and four months ago, the sum of $84,000, and in that time has increased its deposits from $697,529 to $983,312.16, and its resources from $1,096,296 to $1,415,498.90, as shown on the date of the annual statement.

The following gentlemen were elected directors: J. Van Lindley, W. C. Boren, E. P. Wharton, David White, J. W. Scott, A. W. McAlister, J. M. Hendrix, H. T. Ham, E. E. Bain, Z. V. Taylor, A. M. Scales, W. H. Stone, Jr., T. A. Hunter, J. W. Long, E. L. Sides, W. D. Mendenhall, J. C. Watkins, R. G. Vaughn, R. C. Hood, J. A. Rankin.

Following the meeting of the stockholders the directors meet and elected Mr. R. G. Vaughn president; Mr. J. W. Scott, vice president, and Mr. F. H. Nicholson, assistant cashier. The office of cashier will be filled at a subsequent meeting of the directors. Mr. E. P. Wharton, who has been president of the bank since its organization, requested that he should not be re-elected, stating that it was necessary that the business enterprises on the outside, with which he is connected, should have his undivided attention. Mr. Wharton will continue to be interested in the bank and will continue to be a member of its board of directors. There were many expressions on the part of the directors present, of appreciation of Mr. Wharton's services as president of the institution, and a committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions and to procure a silver service to be presented to Mr. Wharton in recognition of his services.

In the selection of a successor to Mr. Wharton there was only one name thought of, and the directors unanimously united upon Mr. R. G. Vaughn for the position of president of the bank, which he was principally instrumental in organizing and to whose wise and faithful direction the success of the bank is so largely attributable. Mr. Vaughn's 21 years' experience in the banking business in Greensboro especially fits him for the position to which he has been elected.

"FORT BLUNDER."

It Was Erected by Our Government on Canadian Soil.

It is not generally known that our government once undertook to erect a fort on British soil. The site of this fort, afterward called Fort Montgomery, was about half a mile northeast of Rouse's Point, N. Y., not far from the foot of Lake Champlain. Popularly it was known as "Fort Blunder." It appears that after the war of 1812 our government felt the necessity of guarding the entrance to Lake Champlain. Accordingly in 1815 was begun the erection of Fort Montgomery. The original notion was to construct a great fort. In those days that meant a fort with three tiers of guns.

When the work had been in hand for some time it was discovered that, owing to an error of early surveyors, the actual boundary between New York and Canada, the forty-fifth parallel of north latitude, passed south of the fort. Work on the fort was suspended for about twenty-five years, and not until the year 1842 was the territory restored to the United States. The agreement known as the Webster-Ashburton treaty, establishing the northeastern boundary, made the line between New York and Canada conform to the old and incorrect early survey. Thus "Fort Blunder" was again on United States territory. The people of Maine, it is said, never quite forgave Daniel Webster for giving up, as they claimed he did, a great slice of territory to which they thought themselves entitled in order to save Rouse's Point.

After the boundary question was settled the fort was finished, but it was never manned by more than sufficient men to keep it in order, and it was never armed.—Harper's Weekly.

A RELIABLE COUGH MEDICINE

Is a valuable friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fulfils this condition exactly. Mrs. Charles Kline, N. 8th St., Easton, Pa., states: "Several members of my family have been cured of bad coughs and colds by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar and I am never without a bottle in the house. It soothes and relieves the irritation in the throat and loosens up the cold. I have always found it a reliable cough cure." Howard Gardner.

Defining It.

"So the authorities have decided that a man's home is where he mostly sleeps, have they?" asked Mrs. Getathim, with a glare at her hapless spouse.

"They have, my dear," he replied, meekly.

"Then the next time you go to register, give the church as your home," she said, with an emphasis not to be mistaken by a guilty, cowering soul.—Baltimore American.

For LaGrippe, Coughs and Stuffy Colds

Take Foley's Honey and Tar. It gives quick relief and expels the cold from your system. It contains no opiates, is safe and sure. Howard Gardner.

Never Too Late.

Maud—I'd sooner be a widow than remain a spinster.

Kate—So would I. Even a husband is better "late" than never.—Boston Transcript.

Old Soldier Tortured.

"For years I sufferd unspeakable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. Kings' New Life Pills fixed me all right. They are simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

"Did you stack up against any big game when you were out West?" asked the man who is fond of shooting. "No, I never play higher than a quarter limit," replied the cheap sport.

Home protection is true wisdom. Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve ought to be in every home for its quick relief and prevention of two dangerous diseases and the more common ailments such as Colds, Catarrh, Burns and Chaps.

Mrs. Muggins—"When I cry my husband always gives in to me." Mrs. Buggins—"Mine always shells out."

Mr. A. G. Coffin says that when he went home Saturday night that he thought, and all his people thought, that he had pneumonia. He rubbed a box of Mother's Joy on his chest, as directed, and went to sleep, and he says the next morning he was entirely well. And he fully believes it broke up a case of pneumonia. All who doubt this will ask Mr. Coffin. For sale by Conyers & Sykes.

No, Maude, dear; we have never heard that in Boston Cupid discards his bow and arrow for a bean-shooter.

LOOK FOR THE BEE HIVE

On the package when you buy Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs and colds. None genuine without the Bee Hive. Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar and reject any substitute. Howard Gardner.

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weaknesses they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

DIABETES

In people of sixty anld over results are quite uniform, probably nine-tenths recovering. While at fifty and over a large majority of cases yield to the treatment, below fifty and approaching forty the disease gets more stubborn, and between thirty and forty the percentage is not high—probably not much over half yielding.

Under thirty the percentage is less and in children recoveries have been very few and most of those were obtained with the aid of skilled physicians forcing nutrition, with alkaline treatment to prevent formation of acetones.

The new emollient treatment is known as Fulton's Diabetes Compound. It can be had in Greensboro at the Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

We desire every patient to write us who is not noting the usual improvement by the third week. Always state age. Literature mailed free. Jno. J. Fulton Co., 645 Battery street, San Francisco, Cal. We invite correspondence with physicians who have obstinate cases.

JUST Rheumacide IT CURES

Rheumatism and Blood Diseases

The cause of rheumatism is excess uric acid in the blood. To cure rheumatism this acid must be expelled from the system. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing with oils and liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure rheumatism than paint will change the fiber of rotten wood.

Cures Rheumatism To Stay Cured.

Science has discovered a perfect and complete cure called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected marvelous cures. Rheumacide removes the cause, gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the bowels and kidneys. Sold by druggists at 50c. and $1; in the tablet form at 25c. and 50c., by mail. Booklet free. Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ATLEE POMERENE.

Senatorial Selection May Be Means of Making Former Coal Miner Governor.

Columbus, Ohio Dispatch in N. Y. American.

Lieutenant-Governor-elect Atlee Pomerene, progressive Democrat, will be the next United States Senator from Ohio, succeeding Charles Dick, whose record helped give Governor Harmon 100,000 plurality and the Democrats the Legislature.

The selection was made today on the first ballot by the Democratic caucus. Pomerene, progressive Democrat, will be the next Hanley, attacked as the representative of the "interests," had only 11, although he was the leading contestant.

The choice of Pomerene was a victory for Governor Harmon and a defeat for the Democratic State organization, Hanley being State chairman.

Pomerene was blinded with tears when brought before the caucus to hear the result. He was heartily congratulated by Hanley.

Pomerene is a self made man. He was born in Berlin, Ohio, 47 years ago, a por boy. He worked his way through school and through Princeton. He practiced law in Canton. In 1908 he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor and was defeated by Harmon. In November he was Harmon's running mate. He is married, but has no children.

Pomerene will qualify as Lieutenant-Governor next Monday and preside over the Senate until he goes to Washington on March 4.

Through Pomerene's selection a coal miner may become Governor of Ohio. William Green, President pro tem. of the Senate, will succeed to the office of Lieutenant-Governor Should Governor Harmon become Democratic candidate for President he probably would resign as Governor and Senator Green would succeed him. Green was a former president of the Clio miners.

I was so lame in my feet, joints, and back that it was agony for me to step. I used Foley's Kidney Pills for three days when I was able to get up and move about and the pains were all gone. This great change in condition I owe to Foley's Kidney Pills and recommend them to anyone suffering as I have." Howard Gardner.

PIANO HARDWARE.

Men Who Buy Parts and Repair Their Instruments at Home.

One's notion of piano hardware is likely to be that it is material of various sorts used in the manufacture and repair of pianos, an idea that would be in the main correct, but at the same time there is more or less of such material sold at retail to private owners of pianos who may be skilled in the use of tools and who undertake to do their own repairing to save expense, and such purchasers may include men who have no knowledge of music, though they may have the mechanical expertness required for the job.

Obviously no great skill is required in replacing a broken caster. A man can buy a single caster and put it on himself if he wants to, or he could in like manner replace a broken hinge or a screw, and he can buy any of these things. But the home repairer does more ambitious work still—as, for instance, he may replace a broken wire. He can buy piano wire of precisely the right gauge, and he may undertake this job and get away with it, or he may replace one or more broken keys or hammers. Not long since a man who had bought a pretty well worn secondhand piano for $15 bought for it a complete new set of hammers, which he put on himself.

Only men of real skill can do such jobs as this, but in a town of this size there are enough men who do their own piano repairing to make it pay to keep piano hardware on sale at retail. —New York Sun.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

MARK TWAIN

1/2 Price

A New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works—25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Molière and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstoi, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thulstrup, Clinedinst, Kemble, and Opper. The binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7½ inches.

Two Freaks of Nature.

Two contrasting freaks of nature are the Island of Fire and the Lake of Snow. The Island of Fire is called the Home of Hot Devils. It is situated in the midst of a large lake of boiling mud in the island of Java. The steam and gases which arise from the sticky mud form themselves into bubbles attaining a diameter of five or six feet and sailing high up in the air like balloons, carried hither and thither by the wind and finally exploding with a loud crash.

The biggest snow lake is seen from the summit of Hispar pass, in the Karakoran range. It is more than 300 square miles in area. In Switzerland the sea of ice might better be called the sea of snow, as the surface is broken up by solar heat, which makes a minute fissuring in the ice, giving it the appearance of snow.

A Shrewd Answer.

Among the advertisements in an English paper there recently appeared the following: "The gentleman who found a purse with money in Burford street is requested to forward it to the address of the loser, as he was recognized."

A few days later this reply was inserted: "The recognized gentleman who picked up a purse in Burford street requests the loser to call at his house."
